Review City Fees

Staff discussed with Council the report that they received on the fees that the City charges for various services. The Council requested staff to look at the following areas:

1. Building fee structure in how development costs are allocated. It was noted that some cities receive fees up front by the developer versus receiving them through the tenants.
2. Continue reviewing a tiered fee structure for street lighting.
3. Proposing a $500 fee for a dangerous dog license. Check with other communities to make sure fee is in line and inquire whether neighbors are notified.
4. Increasing fees for tobacco licenses.
5. Increasing fees for refuse hauler licenses.
6. Increasing license and investigation fees for massage therapists and massage centers.
7. Increasing fee for pawnbroker license to $10,000.
8. Increasing fee for peddlers license. Fee could be per week.
9. Reviewing an escrow account for developments and how that type of system would compare to other cities
10. Reviewing Tax Increment Financing application fee.
